FONTANA POST 262 TO HOST 22ND ANNUAL THANKSGIVING DINNER

FONTANA, CA, 12 NOVEMBER 2008: The American Legion Fontana Post 262 announced today it will again host its 22nd Annual Community Thanksgiving Dinner. Dinner will be served at no cost to anyone in need or just wanting to spend the Holiday with others from the community. Dinner will be served on Thanksgiving Day, November 27th 2008 from 12:00 PM until 5:00 PM at the Post located at 15840 Foothill Blvd, Fontana.

The members of the Post will also serve over 100 traditional Thanksgiving Dinners to the residents of Dino Papavero Senior Center in Fontana on the same day.

"Our Post has provided this service to community for over 20 years. You don't need to be a veteran or in need to attend, the service is here for everyone that wishes to take part. This year has been hard on many people in our community and more may need this event this year. Last year we served over 220 dinners including the dinners served at the Senior Center. We look forward to this event each year. Members from all three units at the Post, American Legion Post 262, Auxiliary Unit 262 and Sons Squadron 262 join together to cook the turkeys and prepare everything starting the evening before and then serve during the day" said Bob Brown the Post Commander.

For Additional information please contact Bob Brown, Post Commander at 909-904-5440 or call the Post at 909-823-8061. The American Legion Fontana Post 262 is located at 15840 Foothill Blvd, Fontana between Citrus Ave and Almeria Ave directly across the street from ACE Hardware.
